FOREWORD

HONOURABLE
DATUK MOHAMADDIN BIN KETAPI
MINISTER OF TOURISM, ARTS AND CULTURE, MALAYSIA

It is with great pleasure that I pen a few words to acknowledge the efforts made to enhance the growth and development of ASEAN tourism through the publication of this online 'ASEAN Tourism Packages 2019-2020'. ASEAN tourism is heading towards a very exciting period of vast potential development.

The World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) has projected that Asia Pacific will gain a major market share of new arrivals in tourism – an additional of 331 million beginning 2010 to reach 535 million by 2030. It is noteworthy that the Southeast Asia region is anticipated to grow at a faster rate compared with the global average during this period.

Given this promising landscape of tourism, it is critical that ASEAN member nations work together to strengthen the region as one tourism destination. With ASEAN members advancing, enhancing and deepening strategic partnerships with one another, the integration will certainly bring about a more attractive and dynamic tourism industry.

Subsequently, these efforts will also bring the peoples of ASEAN closer and lay a firm foundation for a more peaceful, stable and prosperous region. I am confident that given our long history of friendship together, we will advance ASEAN as a special community for tourism in the region to flourish. In this regard, I take the opportunity to thank and congratulate everyone involved in realising the ASEAN Tourism Packages, an important step towards an integrated tourism region.

Thank you.

Honourable Datuk Mohamaddin Bin Ketapi
Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture, Malaysia

MESSAGE

Y.BHG DATUK RASHIDI HASBULLAH
SECRETARY GENERAL
MINISTRY OF TOURISM, ARTS AND CULTURE, MALAYSIA

On behalf of the Ministry of Tourism, Arts and Culture, Malaysia, I would like to express my deepest appreciation to all the ASEAN National Tourism organisations (NTOs) and travel agents from ASEAN Member States for their support and cooperation in the publication of this online 'ASEAN Tourism Packages 2019-2020'.

This is indeed an excellent guide for tourists from ASEAN countries and it will promote the region as a brand in the international market. These online packages, offered by travel agents from ten ASEAN countries and made available on the ASEAN Tourism website, consist of attractive tour packages that promote dual and triple destinations in a single package. Tourists can choose to visit UNESCO World Heritage Sites, join cruises or homestay programmes, or experience the unique cultural heritage of the people of ASEAN countries. Therefore, I believe the 'ASEAN Tourism Packages 2019-2020' will benefit the economies of ASEAN and the local communities.

The 'ASEAN Tourism Packages 2019-2020' is a collective effort to promote the ASEAN region as a single tourism destination. It also aims to instil a culture of travel within ASEAN countries among tourists in the region and globally.

In conclusion, once again, I would like to thank all those who have given their cooperation and support in ensuring the success of the 'ASEAN Tourism Packages 2019-2020'.

Thank you.

Y.Bhg Datuk Rashidi Hasbullah.
Secretary General
Ministry of Tourism, Arts and Culture, Malaysia

A copy of the passport should be sent to the company 40 days before departure. It is important to send the passport to the company because the company can prepare to buy insurance, booking air ticket, fill-in border forms in advance for convenience, and make a name list for hotel booking.

1. The company reserves the right to make changes to the touring programme in case of unexpected incidences and the company will not be responsible for any damages/expenses incurred from the airlines, natural disaster, political issue and others that are beyond the control of the touring company, or any expenses occurring directly or indirectly such as illness, personal abuse, lost, delay due to the border process, or any road accidents that cause delay.
2. The company will not be responsible if you are rejected to leave or enter the country, for example due to bringing illegal items, or invalid documents, or any other reasons of ejection.
3. The touring programme is just an initial proposal and must be re-confirmed once the tour has been purchased and the company has made the booking with the airline company and hotels. However, the touring programmes may be changed as deemed appropriate.
4. The tour guide, staff and the company's representatives have no right to make any confirmation/commitment to customers on behalf of the company unless there is a signed document from the company's managerial board.
5. In case the customer is rejected from entering/leaving Laos or other destination countries at the immigration border, the company reserves the rights not to make refund in any case.

6. The company only accepts customers who have the intention of conducting tourism visits only.
7. The touring programmes may be changed as deemed appropriate without informing customers in advance.
8. Once the payment has been made, either in full or partially to the company, it means that the customer has accepted all the conditions and agreements that have been stated.
9. The accommodation will be booked as stated in the touring programs. Most accommodation will have either a twin bed or a double bed. In case the customers prefer triple-sharing, have rooms next to each other or extra bed, this will be based on the availability of the accommodation.

10. The company will not be responsible for any losses, damages, delays and accidents of your personal bags/luggage.
11. In case the customers would like to issues the tickets within the country, you should always contact the company's staff first, otherwise the company will not be responsible for any incurred cost.

VIETNAM

An aerial photograph of Ha Long Bay in Vietnam. The water is a vibrant turquoise color, surrounded by numerous limestone karsts of varying sizes, some covered in lush green vegetation. Several white cruise ships are scattered across the bay, some docked at small rocky islands. The sky is a clear, pale blue. The overall scene is a picturesque representation of the region's natural beauty.

Ha Long Bay

Decorative foliage, including green leaves and a small pink flower, is visible in the bottom foreground of the image, partially obscuring the view of the bay.
